

OMSA Graduate Assistant

The Office of Multicultural Student Affairs (OMSA) is hiring a Graduate Assistant to assist with various projects and initiatives that align with the mission/vision and strategic priorities of OMSA and the Center for Identity + Inclusion (CI+I). Sample responsibilities appear below:

- Help conceptualize and implement collaborative programs that explore race/ethnicity/culture in consultation with full-time staff members and Student Advisory Council members
- Coordinate a specific program (i.e. a speaker series, mentoring program, affinity space, etc.)
- Manage logistics for several programs with support from full-time staff and student staff members
- Assist with planning and facilitating workshops and trainings for campus community members
- Reach out to students and student organizations, making connections to full-time staff and campus partners, as appropriate
- Promote OMSA programs and resources and build/strengthen strategic partnerships with campus and community partners
- Create and update marketing materials for broad distribution
- Gather student feedback and support assessment efforts
- Conduct benchmarking research across higher education and other networks

Qualifications: Applicants must be currently enrolled graduate/professional students at the University of Chicago in good standing at the time of application and throughout employment. Additional requirements include:

- High level of cultural competency and demonstrated experience working with communities of color and multicultural communities
- Deep desire to support student success and familiarity with or interest in student affairs/higher education
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- High level of initiative and motivation
- Ability to work independently
- Excellent decision-making skills
- Marketing experience preferred, but not required
- Students eligible for work-study preferred, but not required

Position Requirements: The Graduate Assistant will work 10-15 hours/week throughout the academic year. Work schedules are created based solely on class schedules and other academic obligations.

Compensation: $15.00 per hour
